

Figure 1. Two-dimensional slices of transverse magnetic field component showing the progression of magnetic field decay in a three-dimensional relativistic MHD turbulence. The leftmost panel shows the initial condition, and then from left to right the solution is shown at 4, 32, and 128 initial Alfvén crossing times of the simulation domain.